YOU OR SOMEONE YOU KNOW ...

- A TEENAGE GIRL met an older male who becomes her boyfriend. Initially he flatters her, buys her gifts such as a mobile phone, and introduces her to alcohol or drugs. He makes her feel incredibly special
- The man CONTROLS her more and more. He claims she owes him for drugs and forces her to do sexual favours as a means of payment
- SHE IS TAKEN from her family home and returned after varying lengths of time; her relationship with her family or guardians gradually becomes severed
- Pictures or films of her engaging in sex activities are used to make her feel GUILTY, fearful her family will find out. Her 'boyfriend' uses this to control her, making her sleep with his friends
- He takes her to different flats (even in different towns or cities), getting her to sleep with different men
- She may not know he is taking PAYMENT from these men either in money or illegal drugs

AN ICE-CREAM SELLER ...

She saw an advert in a local newspaper to be an ice cream seller for the summer in a foreign country.

IT WAS A TRAP.

SHE WAS TRAFFICKED FROM LATVIA into the UK and sold in the coffee bar of Heathrow Airport for £4000.

SHE WAS FORCED INTO THE SEX INDUSTRY where she was abused and raped; her life destroyed.

HOW DOES TRAFFICKING AFFECT ME?

- Was someone being trafficked when I last caught a flight?
- Has a trafficked person made my clothes or chocolate?
- Are trafficked people working on a farm near me?
- Was the homeless child who asked me for money last week trafficked?

BECOME PART OF THE FIGHT TO STOP PEOPLE

BEING TRAFFICKED simply by seeing signs of trafficking going on when you're in your local high street, catching a flight or in a restaurant. Turn over for key indicators to look out for. Keep this card in your wallet and check it if you see something that concerns you.
IF YOU SEE IT, REPORT IT.

WHAT IS PEOPLE TRAFFICKING?

TRICKING or FORCING someone to leave their home ...

MOVING them to another place within their town, country or to another country ...

EXPLOITING them and using them as slaves.

It's the SECOND LARGEST illegal industry worldwide, second only to the arms trade.

IT'S GOING ON ALL AROUND US, in our communities, on our doorstep.
