A CLOSER LOOK

SUPPLY CHAIN RISK MAPPING

STOP THE TRAFFIK's risk mapping methodology combines open-source human rights data-sets with STOP THE TRAFFIK's Research and Intelligence trafficking database, in order to objectively rank the modern slavery risk for all countries and economic sectors. Using these risk registers, suppliers are risk ranked.

This process enables your business to understand your exposure to modern slavery and strategically prioritise your supplier engagement in order to manage that risk.

BEST PRACTICE POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

From procurement to employment, businesses need to ensure they are managing their modern slavery exposure. Drawing on years of experience and expertise, our analysts review your current management systems, identify any gaps, and design best practice policies and procedures to ensure your business is leading the way.

This is then benchmarked through competitor analysis. Crucially, stakeholder interviews ensure that your practices are implemented effectively.

STOP APP

The STOP APP, live since 2016, is a reporting tool collecting stories of trafficking. It can be used by anybody who knows about, has seen, or is suspicious about a situation they believe to be human trafficking. All information submitted to the STOP APP transformed into actionable intelligence by our team of expert analysts. Stories are then analysed alongside global data on human trafficking and modern slavery.

This data is used to expose global trends and hotspots of human trafficking, which enables us to disrupt, prevent and, ultimately, predict this criminal activity.

TRAFFIK ANALYSIS HUB

STOP THE TRAFFIK is proud to have co-created Traffik Analysis Hub with our long-term technology partner, IBM. Bringing together financial institutions, NGOs, law enforcement and government agencies, the TA Hub is the first ever international data hub to facilitate the sharing of information about human trafficking across all industries and sectors.

Using advanced cognitive technologies, the TA Hub facilitates the sharing of information quickly and easily and combines multiple data sets in one secure system.
